

Familyland Summer Concert Series

7:00 pm

FREE

Jim Barnett Park

June 25

7:00 pm Wayside Theatre's Young Ambassadors' Guild Shakespeare in the Park Scene from "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead" by Tom Stoppard

7:45 pm Ensemble Mawuya A dynamic group of drummers, dancers and percussionists performing music drawn from West and Southern Africa. Intricate drumming, coordination, and exuberant performance characterize a typical Mawuya show.

July 9

7:00 pm Kindred Spirits Performing the unique music of Ireland and Scotland using a variety of traditional Celtic instruments.

July 16

7:00 pm Wayside Theatre's Young Ambassadors' Guild Shakespeare in the Park "Pyramus and Thisbe" from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by William Shakespeare

7:45 pm Bob Payne A frequent performer at Wayside Theatre, Bob Payne will entertain with classic Americana, folk and traditional country music.

July 23

7:00 pm The Window Panes This folk band plays original music plus some of their favorite songs, from bands such as the Rolling Stones, Creedence, R.E.M., Bob Dylan, and The Grateful Dead. These guys just enjoy singin', pickin', & grinin'.. so, share in the experience of laughter, friendship, and music!

July 30

7:00 pm Wayside Theatre's Young Ambassadors' Guild Shakespeare in the Park "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet" by Charles George

7:45 pm Keith Filppu A fingerstyle guitarist, Keith Filppu will play music from different time periods and styles, including: Latin and South American, Folk music from different countries, Ragtime, and Contemporary.

August 6

7:00 pm Flint Hollow Mixing traditional bluegrass with a splash of contemporary, Flint Hollow performances have been "wowing" audiences from all over the region since 2004.