When applying for a job your first impression is your resume. Employers only spend seconds looking at a resume so it MUST look good (format) even before they read it. The Resume Workshop shows the participant how to format, write and include important information employers may want to see. Don't let nerves blind your future employers from seeing you. Job interviews are an important step in getting the job. This workshop will show you how to have an effective interview. The Interview Workshop includes making a great impression, exchanging information and selling yourself. Don't miss this great workshop on improving yourself for the best job.
