

POW/MIA & Korean War Memorials In Jim Barnett Park

Korean War Memorial

This memorial was built and dedicated in 2013 by the Shenandoah Valley Chapter 313, Korean War Veterans Association as a way to remember those brave individuals in our community and surrounding counties who served during the bitter conflict.

POW/MIA Memorial

Built in 2005 to honor and recognize those Virginia soldiers, airmen, sailors and marines, who through their military service to their country, and their status as a POW-MIA, have yet to come home.
